Join the leadership team of a rapidly growing organization.

Connecting Point is a public health and human services organization that produces a wide range of services throughout Northern California. Currently, we are in a tremendous growth phase, expanding and creating new programs and services. It is in this spirit that Connecting Point is currently seeking a Chief Financial Officer.

A successful applicant should have experience in managing fiscal contracts, creating financial plans, budgeting, and assisting with the development of organizational growth. In-depth knowledge of risk management methods and the ability to create forecasting models is also desired. The CFO will assume a collaborative role with the Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer as part of the executive management team.
